

How to Appeal Your Assessment

There are three possible steps to the annual appeal process:

1. Assessors Review (local)
2. March Board of Review (local)
3. Michigan Tax Tribunal (state)

Assessor's Review:

Call the Assessor, Laura Erhart or send a written request (contact information is at the top of the page).

Property owners who are dissatisfied with the Assessors review may appeal to the March Board of Review. March Board of Review dates are published in the paper at the end of February, and are on the Notices of Assessment sent to property owners annually in February.

March Board of Review:

To file an appeal with the March Board of Review complete an appeal form (Petition to Board of Review https://www.michigan.gov/documents/l4035f_2658_7.pdf) and provide supporting documentation. You may present your appeal in person, or in writing. To appeal in writing, mail your petition to the Board of Review @ the Township Offices; 101 Pine St, Bergland, MI 49910. Petitions are NOT accepted through email.

Michigan Tax Tribunal

Protest at the March Board of Review is necessary to protect your rights to further appeal to the Michigan Tax Tribunal for valuation and and/or property exemption.
